

MERCUREY

« Les deux terres »

This wine is the union between the red clays from « les Boussoy » and the black clays from « les Ormeaux »

IN THE VINEYARD

Region

- ◆ Burgundy
- ◆ Côte chalonaise
- ◆ Mecreurey, Saint-Martin sous Montaignu

Terroir

- ◆ "Les Ormeaux": limestone with black clay
- ◆ "En Boussoy": limestone and red clay
- ◆ East-facing
- ◆ 1 hectare

Cépage(s)

- ◆ 100% Pinot noir

Vendanges

- ◆ Hand-picked grapes

IN THE CELLAR

Winemaking

- ◆ Destemmed grapes
- ◆ Cold maceration for 4 days
- ◆ Fermentation lasts about 10 to 15 days

Ageing

- ◆ 12 months
- ◆ 25% new oak barrels

TASTING

- ◆ Clear, shiny ruby colour
- ◆ Purplish highlights

- ◆ Notes of dark fruits
- ◆ Slightly toasted

- ◆ Nice tannic structure
- ◆ Cherry notes on the attack
- ◆ Long and well-balanced finish thanks to the minerality from the terroir

- ◆ Serve at 12/14°C
- ◆ Good aging potential, to oxygenate young

